Classroom Procedures:

- At the beginning of class the procedure will be:
 - ★ Enter the classroom in a polite manner.
 - ★ Sit down and get out supplies.
 - ★ Work on the 'problem of the day'.
- Coming to attention
 - ★ After the bell has rang, the teacher will take a quick attendance.
 - ★ Students are still working on the 'problem of the day'.
 - ★ Students are brought to attention by starting to talk about the 'problem of the day'.
- Class dismissal
 - ★ Review the homework due the next day.
 - ★ Students should stay seated, unless working on a project on the board, until they are dismissed.
 - ★ When the teacher dismisses students, they are allowed to leave.
 - ★ Students should leave as they came in, in a polite manner.

Late Assignments:

- Any student that does not turn in their homework on the day it is due must stay after school until the assignment is completed.
 - Failure to do so will result in detention.
- All homework that is more than a week late from the original due date will be graded for 50%.
- Any homework not turned in before the test for that chapter will result in a zero.

Cell Phones and mp3 Players:

- Cell phones will not be allowed during school time in my classroom.
 - Consequences are outlined in the parent-student handbook on page 11.
- mp3 players will not be allowed during the lesson.
- mp3 players will be allowed during homework and tests.
 - If students are caught playing games or something other than listening to music on their mp3 player, they will not be allowed to use it again for the rest of the year.

Absences:

- Excused-Follows school policy
 - ★ Have homework turned in before absence if possible.
 - ★ Turn in homework within next 2 days.
- Unexcused-Follows school policy
 - ★ Homework is due on the original due date. The late assignment policy will follow.

All other policies will follow the school handbook.
